From Saturday November 15, to Tuesday November 18, 1800.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th of November 1800,

PRESENT,

The KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS Information hath been received that an Epidemic Fever is now raging in the Town of Norfolk, in Virginia, and at Baltimore, in Maryland, within the United States of America; His Majeſty deeming the ſaid Fever to be probably infectious, doth, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, deem it expedient to declare, and by this His Order doth declare, that the ſaid Fever is probably infectious within the Meaning of the Act paſſed in the Thirty-eighth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to "amend Two Acts made in the Twenty-ſixth "Year of King George the Second, and the "Twenty-eighth Year of His preſent Majeſty, "reſpecting the Performance of Quarantine, &c." And doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that all Ships, Veſſels, Perſons, Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, which, ſince the firſt Day of this inſtant November have arrived, or which ſhall hereafter arrive in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or the Iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from any of the Ports of Virginia or Maryland, (not having any Perſon or Perſons on board the ſame actually ill of the ſaid Fever,) do perform a Quarantine of Fourteen Days at the ſeveral Places appointed, and according to the Rules preſcribed by His Majeſty's Order in Council of the Twenty-ninth of July laſt, for Performance of Quarantine by all Ships and Veſſels coming from or through the Mediterranean, or from the Weſt Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, and arriving with clean Bills of Health; and in caſe any of the Crew or Paſſengers on board any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, which, ſince the ſaid firſt Day of November has arrived, or which hereafter ſhall arrive in any of the Ports of this Kingdom or the Iſlands of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from any of the ſaid Ports of Virginia or of Maryland, ſhall have died of the ſaid Fever during the Courſe of the Voyage, the Clothes and all perſonal Effects which are ſuſceptible of Infection, worn by or belonging to ſuch Perſon, ſhall be forthwith burned or ſunk in deep Water; but if ſuch Clothes and Effects ſhall not be ſo burned or deſtroyed, the ſaid Ship or Veſſel, with the Whole of her Cargo and Crew, ſhall not be permitted to perform Quarantine at any Port or Place except at Standgate Creek, and ſhall be compelled to depart from any other Port or Place at which the ſame has arrived or ſhall arrive as aforeſaid, and ſhall repair to Standgate Creek and there perform Quarantine, and not elſewhere: And His Majeſty is further pleaſed to order, with the Advice aforeſaid, and it is hereby ordered, that if it ſhall appear, upon the Arrival of any Ship or Veſſel from any of the ſaid Ports of Virginia or of Maryland, that any of the Crew or Paſſengers belonging to the ſame are actually ill of the ſaid Fever, then ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and the Perſons, Goods, Wares, and Merchandizes, on board the ſame, ſhall not be permitted to perform Quarantine at any Port or Place except Standgate Creek, and ſhall be compelled to depart from any other Port or Place, and to proceed immediately to Standgate Creek in order to perform Quarantine, and ſhall there perform Quarantine, and not elſewhere: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Maſter-General and the reſt of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majeſty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the ſaid Iſles of Guernſey, Jerſey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the neceſſary Directions herein as to them may reſpectively appertain.

East-India House, October 22, 1800.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies do hereby give Notice,

That they will be ready to receive Proposals, in Writing, at any Time on or before Thursday the 20th of November, from any Persons on what Terms and Conditions they are willing to build Ships of about 800 Tons, to be let on Freight for the said Company's Service for Six Voyages certain, at full Freight for 800 Tons, and half Freight for surplus Tonnage; such Proposals specifying a permanent Peace Freight, which must be alike to China and all Parts of India, with Kintledge or without Kintledge for the said Six Voyages; and also a Rate per Ton during War, which must include all extra Expences of Manning and Bounty, Difference of Wages, and every other additional Charge occasioned by War, the Expences of returning Lascars only excepted; that these several Rates of Freight be offered on the lowest Terms for Ships built in the River Thames, or at the Out-Ports; and as there will not be an Opportunity of making any Abatement, and as Questions may arise between Tenders made, the one a higher Tender for Peace and lower for War, and the other Tender the contrary, the Court mean to accept the Tenders which appear to them, under all Circumstances, to be the lowest Offers, if they shall appear to the Court to be reasonable. The Tenders, with the Words "Ship Tender" on the Cover, to be severally sealed up and left with the Secretary at or before Twelve o'Clock at Noon on the said Thursday the 20th of November, beyond which Hour not any Tender will be received. W. Ramsay, Secretary.

The Particulars of the principal Dimensions and Scantlings, also an Inventory of the principal Stores, the Copy of the usual Charter-Party as an Outline, together with the other Terms and Conditions on which the Ships are to be tendered and entertained in the Company's Service, may be had on Application to Mr. Coggan, Clerk to the Committee of Shipping, on or after Monday the 27th Instant.

Not any Tender will be considered unless made in every Respect conformably to the above Terms.
